Experience

Industrial Designer

Zodiac Aerospace | Huntington Beach, CA July 2008 - Present

I take concepts from ideation to production, working with teams of engineers, marketing, program management and customers. We collaborate with clients, suppliers and consultancies from all over the world.

Design Focal - Airbus A350 Lavatory Program (first delivery 2013)

Working with Airbus, I designed the lavatory based on their design specifications. I am currently managing the implementation of the design into production.

Designer - Bombardier CSeries (first delivery 2013)

Member of the small design team creating an entire cabin interior for this new single-aisle aircraft. I work closely with Bombardier to ensure the cabin meets the needs of international customers.

Design Consultant

Napkin Labs Inc | Long Beach, CA. July 2009 - September 2009

Collaborated with founders Riley Gibson and Warren Ng to help define the direction of Napkin Labs, a startup company focused on democratizing the process of design. Also helped to create the early visual strategy and web application layouts for future coding.

Interface and Interaction Design Internship

General Motors | Pittsburgh, May 2007 - August 2007

Designed digital instrument panel concepts for future Cadillac and Chevrolet vehicles. Constructed the basis for a study incorporating these new interfaces using an eye-tracking system. Worked with a researcher in Israel studying interface attractiveness.
